

NATIONAL ALLIANCE OF INDO-CANADIANS

(Not-for-Profit Organization)

Memorandum of Understanding

The purpose of the National Alliance of Indo-Canadians (NAIC) is:

- To create a think tank of mature, wise, experienced and intelligent individuals of Indian origin for the benefit of Indo-Canadians, Canadians and the people of India;
- To strengthen social bonds among Canadians, irrespective of region, religion, race, creed and color to generate oneness and brotherhood;
- To strive towards projecting a positive image of Indo-Canadian community, India and its people in Canada;
- To conduct studies and produce research-based public policy papers that can provide insights, recommendations and develop relevant programs to strengthen social and economic development of Indo-Canadians;
- To act as think and do tank to educate Canadians about Indo-Canadian culture, heritage and contributions through publications, panels, conferences, events and by organizing exchange programs between Canada and India;
- To create awareness on economic opportunities in Canada and India and will facilitate and foster bi-lateral trade relations, investment opportunities and work towards strengthening of economic partnerships between both the countries.

The member organizations would:

- Remain independent but collaborate in support of the common goals of the Indo-Canadian community.
- Recognize the importance, relevance and challenges in support of common goals and support participation in each organization's programs to strengthen the relationship.
- Support and nurture partnership for mutual co-operation with the intent to strengthen Indo-Canadian community and Canada-India relations.
- Acknowledge commitment to Indo-Canadian values of inclusiveness, brotherhood, pluralism, and socio-cultural traditions.
